Welcome

Brief Order of Confession and Forgiveness

P In the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

P God of all mercy and consolation, come to the help of your people, turning us from our sin to live for you alone. Give us the power of your Holy Spirit that we may confess our sin, receive your forgiveness, and grow into the fullness of Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

P If we say we have no sin we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us. Let us confess our sin to God who is faithful and just and who has promised to forgive our sin and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Stand/Kneel Silence for reflection and self-examination

P Most merciful God,

C Have mercy on us. We confess to you that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not trusted you with our whole heart; we have not loved one another in deed and in truth. In your compassion forgive our sin and so uphold us by your Spirit that we may live and serve you in newness of life through Jesus Christ our light and our truth. Amen.

P With joy, I proclaim to you that Almighty God, rich in mercy, abundant in love, forgives you all your sin and grants you newness of life in Jesus Christ.

C Thanks be to God!

The Apostles' Creed

P God has made us his people through our Baptism into Christ, living together in trust and hope we confess our faith...

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit,
And born of the virgin Mary,
He suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
He descended to the dead. *
On the third day he rose again;
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father,
He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church, **
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

*Or, He descended into hell

 catholic church means 'universal church or Christian church throughout the world'.

The Liturgy of Remembrance

P Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the source of all mercy and the God of all consolation. He comforts us in all our sorrows so that we can comfort others in their sorrows with the consolation we ourselves have received from God.

C Thanks be to God!

P When we were baptized in Christ Jesus, we were baptized into his death. We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we, too, might live a new life. For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his.

C Amen.

P Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. ²And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. ³And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them; ⁴he will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away." (Revelation 21:1-4)

Jesus said, "I am the resurrection and the life. Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live, ²⁶and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. (John 11:25-26)

ALL SAINTS BANNER

The All Saints Banner reminds us of the Saints of God who have died in Christ and now receive the gift of resurrection and eternal life. These Saints have passed on to us their legacy of faith in Christ Jesus.

The banner was originally constructed as part of the 225th anniversary of our congregation. The names of the persons buried in the Christ Lutheran Cemetery were written onto the ribbons. Names of members who pass away will be added to the ribbons.

The support of the banner is in the form of a cross. The cross is the means by which Christ has reconciled all of creation both in and on earth to God. By his death on the cross, Jesus has destroyed the powers of sin, evil and death.

In baptism, we are marked as saints of God by the sign of the cross. It is a gift of grace that God claims us as sons and daughters and heirs of the kingdom of heaven. The names which are printed on the ribbon remind us that Jesus the Good Shepherd calls us each by name. We hear his voice and we follow him. By virtue of our baptism, our names have been written into the Book of Life.

The flowing ribbons remind us of the movement of the Holy Spirit in the world and in our lives. In our lives, the Holy Spirit blesses us with the gift of faith. Faith is our trust in God's love for us and God's promise of eternal life. In the world, the Holy Spirit blows like the wind. The Holy Spirit calls, gathers and enlightens the Communion of Saints, the church. In and through this community of faith, the Good News of Jesus Christ is proclaimed in Word and Sacrament. The Holy Spirit keeps the church true in its faith.

The chimes on each end of the cross arms call our attention to the great joy of the Saints gathered around the throne of Christ singing out the Lord's praise. We join our voices with the Saints of old as we sing God's praise in worship. We join the Saints who have gone before around the Lord's Table as we receive a foretaste of the feast to come; as the Saints in heaven take eternal delight in the wedding feast that has no end.

By the power of the Holy Spirit, embraced by God's love, meeting of the Resurrected Lord Jesus in Holy Communion, we are united with those who have gone before. We are inspired by their faith, which has been passed on to us. And we are given comfort, hope and peace for living each day that is before us.
