CHRIST LUTHERAN CHURCH

APRIL 2023

“He is Risen, He is Risen Indeed, Alleluia!”

Happy Easter to all of you!

Even though it might be a little premature to greet you with Easter greetings because I am sure by the time you read this letter; we will be entering the Holy Week, the holiest time of the year starting on Palm Sunday all the way to the Holy Saturday (Easter Vigil). Holy Week is a somber moment where we will intensify our focus on Jesus’ sufferings and death and with our own sufferings and deaths too.

But it is appropriate to greet you with a happy Easter because we know it is coming. Just like the gospel that we had on the last Sunday in Lent before the Holy week is the story of Lazarus raised from the dead that foreshadows what happened to Jesus three days after his death. You may also notice that we call all the Sundays during Lent as Sundays in Lent instead of Sundays of Lent because we reserve those Sundays as Easter and for every Sunday for that matter is Easter to remind us that God has conquered darkness and death and that He has risen indeed Alleluia!

Director of Music - Ann Colbert Wade

But let's not jump into Easter yet. Instead, let us complete this forty-day wilderness journey of Lent all the way to the finish line, the Good Friday and reflect upon it.

As we know that wilderness is a harsh and unforgiving place to travel; it is unpredictable, lonely and dangerous. Indeed, it has been a long forty days of wilderness journey for all and for our church for sure. If we look back, we will discover that we have been going through many ups and downs, joy and sadness, sickness and healing, deaths and new births. We had quite a few members hospitalized or suffered from their ongoing illnesses. Just in the last two weeks we had two of our beloved members Dean Nordman and Dave Pfalzgraf pass away on the same day and buried also in the same day the following week.

We do acknowledge however that there is no Easter without Good Friday. There is no joyful resurrection without Jesus' sufferings and death on the cross. We know that Jesus' sufferings are not in vain, because through his sufferings and death, we too might have life. That is why it is called 'Good Friday' because there is something 'good' coming out of it. That reminds us also that we are joining Jesus in his sufferings and death and at the same time Jesus is walking with us through our own sufferings and even deaths. So that when we are facing a 'Good Friday' moment in our life, we take comfort in knowing that there is a certain hope of a joyful Easter on the horizon. In fact, Easter is today, tomorrow and forever. As Jesus said to Martha, "I am the resurrection and the life. Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die..." (John 11:25-26).

Therefore, my sisters and brothers in Christ, as the angel said to the women who came to the tomb on the first Easter morning, "Do not be afraid; I know that you are looking for Jesus who was crucified. He is not here; for he has been raised, as He said..." Instead rise up and rejoice! For indeed, 'Christ is Risen, He is Risen Indeed, Alleluia!'

Happy Easter!

Serving Christ with you,

Pr. Bimen Limbong

HE IS RISEN

FAITH is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen.

Dear Ones in Christ:

This verse from Hebrews 11:1 first came into my life as a catechism student at Christ Lutheran in the early 1950's. Our Pastor then, John Evans, was quite the instructor in requiring my 8 student class to memorize passages of scripture. This and many other of the passages we memorized have never left me, although at the time he was putting us through these paces we were not the most patient of teenagers.

As I consider the path our congregation has been on these last couple of years, that verse has constantly crept into my mind. Over this past year in my work as the Pastoral Assistant I have watched our church look for a path forward, a way to heal and a vision for the future.

In contrast to what the author of this verse tells us, Faith is not always easy to keep. But I have seen many of our members continue to do the jobs at Christ which they have done for a long time: keeping the property looking good; counting the offering every Sunday; serving on the committees; being deacons, ushers, council members, and cross bearers. They have kept the Faith.

Now our council and congregation are working with our Synod staff person, Pr. Nancy Nyland and others to firmly identify our gifts, and continue to utilize them. Sometimes it is slow and difficult work. But I sense we will not tire and will continue to push ahead.

When in catechism class (now termed confirmation class) so long ago, I never dreamed I was building a foundation for my vocation. My faith was formed then, and has been growing ever since. This is assurance and conviction. Those are two words have carried me through my years of ministry. Those two also give me confidence that we will continue to grow in our faith and ministry at Christ.

Someone once termed the word FAITH this way: Forsaking All, I Trust Him. That is the assurance and conviction that keeps us going.

Grace and Peace,
Pastor George Mercer

FROM THE CHURCH COUNCIL

2 Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
3 I thank my God every time I remember you. 4 In all my prayers for all of you, I always pray with joy 5 because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now, 6 being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus. --Philippians 1:3-6

With the occurrence of the annual congregational meeting at the end of January comes the arrival and departure of members serving on the church council. I would like to express our gratitude to Dale Breitenstein and Karen Koch (2022 President and Secretary, respectively), and to Barry Barmore, Ginny Hallum, and Bud Goss for their time and dedication in serving on council for the last two years. I would also like to thank our newly elected council members—Alex Casey, Mike Kull, and Randy Hesler—for their willingness to serve in the months ahead.
We're looking forward to getting to know each other better and working together to actively support our congregation's mission of Making Christ Known.

At the February council meeting, we elected our 2023 council officers and designated council liaisons for each church committee:

- ✠ Pr Bimen Limbong, Evangelism, Small Group Ministry,
Global Mission
- ✠ Pastor George Mercer, Endowment
- ✠ Sarah Pryor (President) Youth Ministry, Communications
- ✠ Steve Sarson (Vice President) Worship
- ✠ Roger Miller (Secretary) Social Ministry
- ✠ Dale Breitenstein, Property, Fellowship
- ✠ Alex Casey, Christian Education
- ✠ Randy Hesler, Communications, Memorial
- ✠ Karen Koch, Finance
- ✠ Mike Kull, Finance
- ✠ Nancy Walsh, Stewardship, Endowment, WELCA

At our March council meeting, we discussed the following projects—

- † Capital Campaign Project - Kitchen Update: After consulting with a HVAC estimator/project foreman, we were advised that changing to gas ranges would exponentially increase the project cost and timeline, due to code requirements for ventilation and metal stud walls in the range wall. Therefore, Dale will lead a team to shop for new electric ranges in the next month, to be installed as soon as possible, which will mark the completion of our final capital campaign project. Thanks to all who generously supported our capital campaign projects! If you made a pledge but are uncertain whether you completed it at the end of 2022, you can check with Financial Secretary, Karen Schuette.
- † Visioning - Community Leader Interviews: Mike Kull assembled contact information for about a dozen leaders around J'town. Council members divided the contacts among themselves, with the goal to schedule and conduct interviews by the next council meeting (depending on availability of interviewees, of course).
- † Visioning - History Project: Dale will be meeting with some long-time members to tap their knowledge of significant moments of CLC's history. This will assist us in creating a timeline for display. All members will be encouraged to add details to the timeline and reflect on the pivotal moments in our congregation's history and how it shaped our community.

Council meetings will continue to typically take place on the 3rd Tuesday of each month at 7pm. Feel free to contact council members with questions or suggestions, and please consider joining one of the committees listed above. There are several teams in need of additional sets of helping hands, and Christ's body is made stronger by the active participation of our members sharing their talents and perspectives.

Finally, please join us in welcoming Carolyn Kelly, who started as our full-time administrative assistant in the office at the end of February. Her hours will be Mon-Fri, 9:00am-4:30pm. We are so glad she is here!

Holy Week Volunteers

While Holy Week is one of the most spiritual weeks in the Christian calendar, it is also the most demanding. It takes many individuals to make the services as meaningful as we have come to expect.

Please prayerfully consider volunteering for one of the many worship opportunities available. There is a sign up sheet in the Narthex or you may reach out to Becky Miller at rso3561@yahoo.com.

This month JAM is accepting donations of household cleaning products: all-purpose cleaning chemicals for kitchen and bathroom, sponges, sanitizing cleaning wipes, etc.

Please consider dropping off these items at our church for families in the Jeffersontown area. You may also drop off at JAM directly, but please call first to make sure they are open. Their number is 267-1055.

ENDOWMENT COMMITTEE

HeartStart FRx Automatic External Defibrillator

As previously noted in the Annual Meeting Report, the Endowment Committee has purchased an automatic external defibrillator (AED) for the church. Our thanks to the Building Committee for mounting the AED cabinet in the hallway between the Narthex and the Fellowship Hall. The unit has been activated and is ready for use as needed.

In order to become familiar with this life-saving device, the company has provided an excellent on-line video that any member of the congregation can access and review. The video is about 38 minutes long, and it reviews the equipment, set-up, and use of the device in an emergency setting, as well as a review of basic CPR. The video would be appropriate to view individually or in group settings. The link to this training is:

<https://americanAED.com/dvd/frx>

We would highly recommend that members of all ages take time to watch this video, and to go to the hallway outside Classrooms 1 & 2 to become familiar with the location. If an emergency arises, and you are asked to retrieve this equipment for use, go to the cabinet and remove the red defibrillator case as well as the red pouch that has CPR supplies in it. There is also a large step by step instruction chart next to the cabinet.

After watching the video, you may feel more comfortable with a hands-on opportunity to review the equipment and the process for using it. To this end, a table will be set up in that hallway between services on the following Easter Sunday and also on Sunday, April 16th. At this time we will have a sign-up sheet for those who would like to attend a Basic CPR training class, to be scheduled at a later date.

Thank you so much for the contributions made in the past to the Endowment Fund that have enabled us to have this important piece of equipment.

We hope you have experienced a blessed Lent this year. We hope you will join us during Holy Week. We will offer worship services in person as well as a live streaming option for those unable to attend in person.

THANK YOU

to the members of

2345 Christ Lutheran Church

from the

Indiana-Kentucky Synod

of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.
In grateful appreciation for giving

$ 42,862.70

for Mission Support beyond the congregation for synod and churchwide ministries of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

We want you to know, brothers and sisters, about the grace of God that has been granted to the churches of Macedonia; for during a severe ordeal of affliction, their abundant joy and their extreme poverty, have overflowed in a wealth of generosity on their part. For, as I can testify, they voluntarily gave according to their means, and even beyond their means...they gave themselves first to the Lord and, by the will of God, to us. (2 Corinthians 8:1-3,5)

Thank you, dear people of God, for your generous partnership and support, as, together, we continue to empower, equip, and encourage one another to make Christ know, across this mission territory and far beyond. ~ Bishop Bill Gafkjen

Making Christ Known

THE WAY OF THE CROSS

Holy week will be here soon. We invite you to take some time during this season to meditate on the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus using the Way of the Cross—a mini-pilgrimage if you will, that walks you through the final hours of our Savior’s life on earth. This year, you can experience the Way of the Cross (also known as Stations of the Cross) two ways: with a virtual walk on the Christ Lutheran social media pages and an in-person option in the church sanctuary.

For the virtual option, simply visit our Facebook or Instagram page daily to see artwork created by our members depicting each station and read the bible passage and short devotion. You may also opt to physically walk through the stations by spending a few quiet minutes in our sanctuary. Pick up a booklet from the basket at the front of the left side aisle, and walk along the side aisles, stopping at each relief panel depicting the stations along the way to read the corresponding devotion and prayer. May the Holy Spirit guide you during this time of meditation, drawing you in to contemplate what each step in his final walk means to you and your spiritual journey.

Jesus is condemned to death

LUKE 2:34-35

Jesus carries his cross.

Jesus falls the first time.

MARY MEETS JESUS

Then Simeon blessed them and said to Mary, his mother, "This child is destined to cause the falling and the rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be spoken against, so that the thoughts of many hearts will be revealed. And a sword will pierce your own soul too."

Jesus meets his mother,
Mary.

Simon of Cyrene helps Jesus carry his cross.

Veronica wipes the face of Jesus.

Jesus falls the second time.

Jesus meets the women of Jerusalem.

Jesus falls a third time.

Jesus' clothes are taken away.

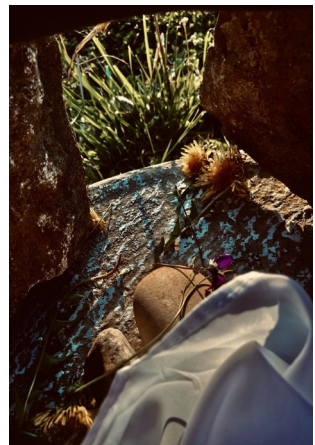

Jesus is nailed to the cross.

Jesus dies on the cross.

The body of Jesus is taken down from the cross.

Jesus is laid in the tomb.

EXPRESSIONS OF THANKS

Praise to the God of All Comfort- 2 Corinthians 1:3-4 3 Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of compassion and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our troubles, so that we can comfort those in any trouble with the comfort we ourselves receive from God.

Praise be to our friends at Christ Lutheran Church. On behalf of the Pfalzgraf family, we wanted to express our gratitude for all the support you have given us, not just since dad's passing, but always asking and praying for him over the past year. His health had been declining, and while we know he dearly missed coming to service each Sunday, he (and us) felt your continued prayers. Dad was very honest, in his own way, when people asked, "how are you doing?" His answer was typically, "well, I'm vertical." For him, that was true. It was the best he could do.

Since his passing your comfort has been very appreciated. From the visitation, the service, and outreach we have experienced, you all have been a blessing and Made Christ Known.

As siblings, we rejoiced together in the love we shared for our dad. As a family, we rejoice with Christ Lutheran that you shared this journey with us in prayer, support, and blessings, as we all know that he is joyfully dancing with mom in the healing hand of our Savior. Peace and Amen.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION NEWS

March sure did fly by! We had a wonderful time learning from Pastor Stephen Flynn, executive director of LOMIK (Lutheran Outdoor Ministries Indiana-Kentucky Synod). He shared with us all the wonderful ministries they offer. Did you know camp is not just for kids? Did you know there are three different Lutheran camps located in Indiana? The closest camp to Louisville is Lutheran Hills (by show of hands many of us have visited). The other camps are Lutherwald & Lake Luther located in northern Indiana. Each are opened year-round and offer many camping styles (tent, cabin, campers, short stays), retreat centers, hiking, swimming, fishing, etc. All include discovering God in a different way.

When summer camp is over, retreat season begins. Many in our session had been to Lutheran Hills for a variety of events, summer camp, retreats, Grandparent camp, Trailblazers, Spring break, music camp and family campouts. To show and explain how campers of all ages experience the Holy Spirit working through them he asked us to participate in the Christ walk. Each table was given a bible story to teach to the rest of the group any style they saw fit. We all enjoyed reading, acting, and reciting from memory the stories we were assigned. Pastor Flynn also shared that they are still in need for camp counselors. The only requirement is that they have completed one year of college. If you know a young adult that might be interested please contact Pastor Flynn at info@lomik.org.

Most importantly the mission of LOMIK states the following: LOMIK welcomes all and provides Christ centered programs for building faith and life-long relationships in a safe, caring, and fun environment. Their values are Faith, Family, Community, Service & Integrity. Summer Camp registration is now open! To register online go to www.lomik.org. We also have information available on the counter next to room 5. Financial aid is available for campers if needed, please contact Pastor Bimen for more information. We thank Pastor Flynn for sharing his message with us during the Sunday school hour and both worship services.

We will take a short break from our speaker series next month, but will have a VBS volunteers meeting on Sunday, April 16, after late service. Be on the look out for more information about this summer's VBS, it is sure to be out of this world!!

Thank You for your kindness!

Thank you to all who have sent cards and extended wishes for a good outcome and a speedy recovery from my recent knee surgery. They are much appreciated.

Much Thanks, Roger Miller

YOUTH CORNER

Youth Breakout!

On Sunday, March 12th, a group of 16 youth enjoyed an afternoon of puzzle-solving and teambuilding at Breakout Louisville. Splitting into 3 groups, each team worked together to beat the clock and solve their team challenge—stopping a Runaway Train, serving in a Bomb Squad, and uncovering the secrets of the Mystery Mansion.

Were they successful or did the clock run out on their adventures? You'll have to ask them for yourself! Thanks to Tracy Richardson, Tammy Kissling, and AJ Kratt for chaperoning the teams for the day.

GIFT Youth Swept into Iceland for Broomball

A group of about 22 Southeast Conference youth, including 7 from Christ Lutheran, had a blast playing Broomball at Iceland on Saturday night, February 25th. For the uninitiated, broomball is played on an ice rink much like hockey, only using balls instead of pucks and brooms instead of hockey sticks. The evening showcased skills both athletic and comedic, with fun and smiles all around. Many thanks go to Ascension Lutheran's Youth Director, Aaron Flynn, for organizing the event. Based on the strong turnout and positive feedback, we hope this returns as an annual event!

CREW VISITS MEMBERS

This month, CREW visited with Martha Classon and it was a wonderful experience! Martha shared with us that she has been an educator, a professional youth counselor and an active member of Christ Lutheran Church. She said that she misses everyone and that she enjoys being part of the worship services via the live-streaming.

Pam Ballinger joined us for our lesson led by Petra Limbong and in addition to Dylan Kissling playing the Autoharp, Samuel Limbong joined in on the piano. Music and voices were heard all throughout the building!

CREW is the High School Sunday school group visiting our home-bound members the first Sunday of each month. We'd love for you to join us or let us know of someone that could use our brand of energy and spirit.
